Paris, September 4.

AN Edict has been published, dated last Month, setting forth, that the King being desirous to have the Bank Notes called in and extinguished by all Methods, had created Annuities to the Value of 4 Millions of Livres Yearly, to be purchased with Bank Notes, at 4 per Cent. The said Annuities to be paid duly at the Town-House of Paris, without any Reduction or Abatement on any Occasion or for any Cause whatever; and not to be liable to be attached or seized, even for his Majesty's own Dues. This Edict having been sent to the Parliament at Pontoise, was registred on the 30th past, in unusual Terms, viz. Our Lord the King is most humbly besought to give Order that the Bank-Notes which shall by this Means be drawn in, be certainly defaced and burnt; and to be pleased likewise to let the Annuities created by this Edict be paid at the Rate of 5 per Cent. The Plague carries off great Numbers of People at Marfeilles: The Duke Regent has sent Orders to banish out of that City for ever such of the Societies of Monks there who decline to attend the Sick on this Occasion. The Bishop has distinguished himself by doing this Duty in a very exemplary Manner. Some Advices from the East are, it has been observed from Experiments, that small Worms in the Bodies dead of the Plague, are killed in any other Liquor than The Name of Jesus, and Lemmon Juice. The Directors of the India Company are Harcourt, Marquis de Mouchard, Morin, Rigby, Franchois, Mouchard, De Premenil, Fromager, La Porte, Godeheu, Le Beau, Lallemand, La Haye, Perier, Mennur, Savalette, Julie, Le Goult, Langleois, and Corneau. The House of Bourdeaux and Toulouse registred the King's Declaration of the Agreement of the Disposition of the Pope's Constitution.

Unigenitus: That of Rennes has refused it: That of Paris has it still under De-liberation at Pontoise.

Brussels, Aug. 31. On Thursday last about Noon arrived here an Express from Antwerp, being dispatched by the Magistrates of that City to bring the Marquess de Prié the agreeable News, that their Communities of Burghers have at length granted the Subsidy demanded of them; and a Deputation is expected to notify this in Form to his Excellency the Administrator. But the Government would have been better pleased, had those Burghers of Antwerp consented to this sooner and with a better Grace, and not staid till Troops were sent among them, which is always troublesome and expensive. Yesterday arrived here a Battallion of the Regiment of Baden from Liege, being so reduced by Sickness as to consist of no more than 200 serviceable Men, instead of 700, which is the ordinary Complement: Other Troops are sent to supply their Room.

Hanover, Aug. 19.
